AN EDITORIAL WORD

Cents are omitted from the statistical tables. In one or two cases alterations were made by request, after Conference, but were not carried into the totals, as this involved too many changes. In the financial tables the figures of the Statistical Secretaries were used. It is highly desirable that the figures of the Tellers be used, but this can not be done until perfect agreement is reached between Secretaries and Tellers as to the order of arrangement of pastoral changes and of the items of benevolent collections. This can be done, and will be done, no doubt, before another issue of the Annual. Contradictions always occur in these statistical tables. The Secretaries have labored hard to eliminate them as far as possible. Most of the figures were run through an adding machine, and ought to be correct.

The price of the Annual is 25 cents per copy. Preachers will have all the copies sent to them, and remit to the Secretary at Morristown, Tenn. If additional copies are needed, write at once to the Secretary.

CONFERENCE REPORTS

TEMPERANCE.

We are devoutly grateful to Almighty God for the constantly growing antagonism waged in the manufacturing, mercantile, labor, social, political, moral and religious worlds against this "curse of the nations." With the temperance agitation that is stirring the world; with the battle royal against the saloon that is waging throughout Canada and the United States; with thirty-eight millions of the people of the United States, and twenty-one millions of the twenty-three millions of the South living in prohibition territory; with three-fifths of the area of our territory under prohibitory laws; with nine prohibition states today and with a prohibition sentiment that feels strong enough to move for immediate state-wide prohibition in six more of the great American commonwealths; with the battle waging in every state in the Union for some sort of progressive temperance legislation; with the increasing demand for governmental restriction of the interstate liquor shipping traffic; with a constantly growing conscience on the question in the hearts of the great American people, we may well thank God and take courage.

Anarchistic to the core, the American saloon will descend to any depths of perfidy and shame, corrupt and nullify all law and government, debauch and degrade all society, and, if possible, destroy the Church of God in order to sell intoxicating liquors for the sake of gain. Therefore, every interest, involving the welfare of both Church and State, demand the complete and final overthrow of the legalized saloon and the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes.

We stand for county-wide, state-wide, nation-wide and world-wide prohibition of the liquor traffic. The issue between the liquor traffic, on the one hand, and the people on the other hand, is not primarily, a political question. It is a moral question in its essence, and becomes political only in the sense, that as the liquor traffic is entrenched in our laws and government by the iniquitous revenue system, it becomes necessary to secure the enactment of legislation to accomplish its destruction. As a moral question, it rises above all party differences and partisan alignments. We rejoice to note the fact that the onward triumph of the people in their warfare against this great enemy is steady and continuing. The march is forward: there is no backward step.

The war against the open, legalized saloon, and the manufacture and sale of liquor, being a moral war, the Church is neither discouraged nor amazed at the magnitude of the conflict. The Church is not perturbed by the length of the conflict, nor by the strength and resources of the enemy. The Church has an abiding faith in the ultimate and complete triumph of the right, and that no moral issue is ever settled until it is settled right. We go forward, therefore, confident that the future has but one result—a glorious and overwhelming victory for the Church; and, whether that victory be near at hand, or long delayed, we see the turn of every hour and every new sunrise bringing us nearer to that glad day.

We submit the following resolutions for your adoption:—

First: We rejoice in the great advance of temperance sentiment in our country, and in the splendid victories for the abolition of the saloon.

Second: We rejoice in every movement for the total destruction of the liquor traffic; especially do we endorse and commend the interdenominational, non-partisan, anti-saloon league movement, which in the spirit and power of the evangelical Church of Jesus Christ is waging such an uncompromising warfare against the saloon. We are also in heartiest sympathy with the faithful and unceasing efforts of our women to abolish intemperance through the W. C. T. U. organization.

Third: We deplore and condemn the refusal of the recent General Assembly of Virginia to pass the Strobe Enabling Act, thereby refusing to give the people of the State an opportunity to vote on state-wide prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, thereby refusing the voters of the state the opportunity to exercise what we believe to be their inalienable right as citizens of Virginia.

Fourth: That as the licensed liquor traffic was not engrafted upon the State of Virginia by a vote of the people but by legislative enactment that we demand of the next Legislature the abolition of the entire legalized distillery, dispensary and saloon system, by the same method, or the submission of the question of state-wide prohibition to a vote of the intelligent and responsible citizenship of the Commonwealth. We urge the Virginia Anti-Saloon League to labor for such of the above measures as the wisdom of the temperance forces shall deem best and pledge ourselves to the support of such a movement.

Fifth: The question of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors continues to be a vital question in the State of Tennessee and that any effort on the part of any man or men to retire it as a great civic issue should be condemned by all patriotic and Christian men, as a subtle suggestion of the friends of the iniquitous liquor traffic, and deserves the severest rebuke from every citizen who loves righteousness and morality.

Sixth: We insist upon the rigid enforcement of the present prohibition laws in Tennessee, and give support only to those candidates for office who will uncompromisingly agree to resist the repeal of the law, and who will stand for its enforcement throughout the state.

Seventh: We rejoice in the respective success of electing a legislature in the State of West Virginia, which will enact a statutory prohibitory law, and pass an act submitting a constitutional prohibition amendment to the people, and we urge all our people in that state to support with their utmost influence and effort those measures independent of all factional and partisan politics.

Eighth: We urge upon all members of Congress from our respective states to give their most diligent and determined support to the Miller-Curtis Interstate Liquor Shipment Law for the regulation of the interstate traffic in intoxicating liquors and to secure the enactment of a national law to prohibit the granting of United States licenses to liquor dealers in prohibition territory.

Ninth: We learn with great gratification of the great and growing state-wide effectiveness and influence of Rev. J. D. McAlister as General Secretary of the Virginia Anti-Saloon League, and recommend his appointment to that office.

SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Your committee is profoundly impressed that there is no subject of such moment and importance coming before this Conference as the spiritual state of the Church, all other business and work revolving around this.

Having heard with pleasure the reports of the presiding elders and preachers from their various charges with reference to the great and vital movements of the Church, it is with sincerest gratitude to Almighty God that we are able to chronicle over ten thousand conversions, as many as Saul had of the picked men of Juda when he met the armies of the Amalekites at Telain. Perhaps this is the largest number of conversions ever reported at one time in the history of this Conference. From the best information we can gather from the brethren, from sixty to seventy per cent. of this number have united with our Church, which if correctly reported, ought to greatly augment the aggregation of our membership, which if it does not do will unmistakably show that there is careless and reckless guessing and a haphazard way of reporting that ought to be corrected, or that there is an alarming leakage at some other place or in some other way, which ought to be stopped.

Of this other twenty-five or thirty per cent. of converts who have not joined our Church, it is to be hoped they have united with some other branch of the Christian Church where they can have the fostering care and helpful fellowship of that communion to assist them in working out their salvation, and affording them a useful field in which to display their Christian activities, and thus increase the efficiency of God's militant church. We think there is little more hope of a professing Christian making any kind of success in trying to lead a religious life independently of an organized Church, than there would be for a free-booter or free-lancer to make a success of a great military campaign. With these thousands of men and women converted—fresh from the altar of consecration in the fervor and zeal of newborn souls; with hundreds and hundreds of additions to the 68,553 members we already had; with the inspiring morning talks of Bishop Candler, it seems that we might begin a campaign for the incoming year with an invincible army that would shake these Holston Hills from the tallest peaks of the Unakas to the farthest stretches of the Cumberland, and from the breaks of the New River to Rising Fawn in Georgia.

From the increase in salaries and the enlargement in collections and the magnificent contributions to church buildings and church collections, amounting to hundreds of thousands of dollars right in our own midst, it gives us an enlargement of faith in the genuineness and stability of this great work, as it is "by their fruits ye shall know them."

Your committee would be remiss if it should fail to call your attention to the importance—the almost supreme importance—of family religion and the early dedication in infancy of our children in holy baptism to Almighty God, and the training of them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. We would especially emphasize and heartily commend the recommendation made by our college of bishops, and stressed by the General Conference, of making this a quadrennium of revival and great spiritual uplift in our Methodist Zion.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The command of God, "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy," is universal in its scope, and is to be perpetuated by the race. It was sanctioned and magnified by Christ and his apostles. The Sabbath was made for man to meet one of the great needs of his nature. It stands for his physical and spiritual improvement. This is clearly demonstrated in individual and national life. The people and the nations that have reached the highest civilization and are making the most progress in every right direction observe God's day. History does not fail to record the fact that when the people through covetousness or love of pleasure set at naught this law of God by doing servile work or giving themselves over to worldly amusements suffer the penalty of decay and death. We deplore the tendency in our beloved land, and even among many of our Church people to violate this command to such a distressing extent. Whether or not this evil is growing in our midst we may not be able to determine; but one thing is sure, our duty in regard to it as members of God's Kingdom is made plain. We hail with delight any institution, convention, or organization whose purpose is to preserve the sanctity of the Sabbath; yet we must not forget that the most powerful of all is the Church. Therefore, let us do our whole duty to make the Sabbath day what God intended it to be.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

It is a matter of sincere regret that no statistical data is available as a basis for our report with reference to Sunday-school progress during the past year. Steps are being taken to meet this deficiency in the future. But enough is known to warrant the statement that seldom, if ever, in the history of our Conference have there been more evident tokens of an awakened conscience with respect to the duty and privilege of searching the Scriptures in the house of God on the Lord's day. The growth of interest is manifest in enlarged enrollments for which ampler provision of adequate facilities are being made. Everywhere the antiquated and insufficient is being modernized and improved. Not only moral obligation but a stern necessity, imposed by constant and rapid progress in the means and methods of secular education, is being clearly recognized throughout Christendom. Reference to the report of Dr. Chappell, our Sunday-school editor, and to the advanced legislation of the late General Conference proves the statement true of Southern Methodism.

The limits imposed on this report forbid elaboration of details. Proof of forward and upward movement is found in more adequate buildings and furnishings, improved and enlarged courses of study; in teacher training; the cradle roll; home department and adult classes; the employment of Conference field secretaries; a definite missionary policy; increasing observance of the various occasions to which special days in the year are set apart; a fuller recognition of the religious rights of childhood in the Kingdom of God, by these and many other infallible tokens a brighter and better day has dawned upon the Sunday-school world. And yet we know full well that conditions in most of our schools are far from the ideal. We need to realize the weight of John Wesley's reply to the question, "What shall we do for the rising generation?" "Unless we take care of the children," said he, "the present reformation will last only the age of a man." Paraphrasing a familiar adage, "Take care of the children and the adults will take care of themselves."

Handicapped by lack of district organization and this in turn through lack of necessary funds for the prosecution of systematic work the outgoing board, conscious of its limitations of influence, bespeaks for the one now incoming a more sympathetic and generous support. We recommend for your adoption the following resolutions:

1. That the Holston Conference, appreciating the high class service rendered by our Sunday-school Editor, Superintendents of Training Work and of Supplies, and also recognizing the potency and promise of the missionary and of the Wesley Adult Bible Class departments, recently launched, we do, therefore, pledge ourselves to a hearty support of these various agencies and institutions upon which the spiritual well-being of our young people so largely depends.

2. That we rejoice in the advanced legislation secured at the late General Conference providing for increase of Sunday-school efficiency, and that we will gladly conform our aim and effort to the attainment of the objects proposed.

3. That you authorize the Presiding Elders in Conference with the Executive Committee of our Board to appoint, ad interim, substitutes for members of the Board who may, by reason of death or disability, drop out of our effective list.

4. That our aim for the year in Holston shall be:

- (a) A Sunday-school in every Church. (b) Our own literature in every Sunday-school. (c) Children's Day observed in every Sunday-school. (d) Every Sunday-school organized as a missionary society. (e) All Fifth Sunday collections for the Greeneville Home. (f) A Sunday-school institute in every district. (g) A field worker for the Conference.

LAYMEN'S MOVEMENT.

Your committee of Laymen beg to report as follows:

First. That we have carefully considered the letter addressed to this Conference by the General Secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement and heartily approve the policy of the movement as far as it is expressed therein.

Second. We are grateful for the splendid work of Maj. A. D. Reynolds and C. G. Hcunshell, and those who have so generously co-operated with them, in so largely contributing to the equipment of our Korean Mission. With other fields in equally urgent need, we feel there should be no abatement of interest or effort, and recommend that Brazil be made our special for the coming year, and that our special collection be divided between Brazil and our Home Mission.

Third. We believe that every member canvass, seeking to secure weekly offering for Home and Foreign Missions from every Southern Methodist, will enable us to do our share in evangelizing Christless men at home and abroad, and that it will eventually solve most of the financial problems of the Church, and we hereby pledge our laymen to a full co-operation with our pastors in carrying it into effect.

Fourth. The very marked success that has attended the use of the duplex envelope, leads us to urge its general adoption as the simplest and most effective device for collecting missionary money and the current expenses of the Church, thus leaving our pastors unembarrassed for the delivery of their glorious message.

Fifth. We believe that Go Forward, The Christian Advocate and the Midland Methodist offer the Laymen's Missionary Movement convenient and effective media for the education of our people on the subject of missions and for keeping them informed on the progress of the work. Therefore, we respectfully request the managers of these papers to open a Laymen's Missionary Department and recommend that the Missionary Committee make it a part of the "every member canvass" to see that one or all of these publications be put in every Southern Methodist home in this Conference.

Sixth. We heartily approve the action of this Conference in assessing the Church membership to increase the endowment fund for the superannuated preachers, and we pledge the laity in a hearty co-operation in raising this assessment.

Seventh. We recommend that the Conference Lay Leader and District Leader be made members, ex officio, of the District Conference.

Eighth. We believe that our Church schools and colleges are furnishing to our Southland its best type of manhood and womanhood and urge our laymen everywhere to make the better endowment and equipment of the institutions a matter of immediate consideration.

Ninth. We believe no man can be a happy and growing Christian who makes no personal effort to win others to Christ. Therefore, we recommend that our laymen heartily co-operate with their pastors in revival work and that they volunteer to conduct religious services when needed. It will thus become practicable so have some form of Christian service at every preaching place within our borders every Sunday.

Tenth. Whereas, an Assembly Ground at Waynesville, N. C., has been planned under the auspices of the Laymen's Missionary Movement for the promotion of educational, missionary and other interests, we recommend this great movement to all our pastors and people as one of the most important enterprises of the current year.

Eleventh. We hereby announce the election of J. Tyler Frazier to be Field Secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, and that his salary be guaranteed by the laymen. We, therefore, respectfully request the Bishop to appoint him to this work.

We hereby nominate Maj. A. D. Reynolds for Conference Lay Leader.

BIBLE BOARD.

It is a well known fact that the Bible is one of the most important factors in the evangelization of the world. The knowledge of it enlightens the individual mind, purifies the home life, elevates the nation to the highest form of civilization, brings peace and good will to mankind, unspeakable joy to the heart, and life eternal to the soul.

We rejoice to know that the friends and sympathisers of the American Bible Society have been successful in raising the $500,000 to meet the conditional offer of Mrs. Russell Sage, and we are thrilled with great joy that the thinking men of the world have been moved upon by the Holy Spirit to organize, plan and furnish means for the publication and circulation of the Bible, until now the New Testament can be had for five cents, and the whole Bible for only seventeen cents.

In view of this fact, we recommend that the assessment for the ensuing Conference year remain the same as it was last year. That we, as preachers make an honest effort to raise the assessment in full and to place a Bible in every home, in our pastoral charge, where there is none.

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD

Since our last Annual Conference there has been decided advancement along all lines of League work. The figures will show for the past year a healthy increase in the number of both chapters and members. This would be gratifying, indeed, but for the fact that there remains in our Conference more than seven hundred organized societies in which there are neither Junior nor Senior Leagues. Not only are these churches without Leagues, but without any other training work among the young people whatever.

Recognizing that the Church of the future depends upon the training of our young people of this generation, and that the Epworth League is the only distinct training school the Church has, we must admit that failure here is to be felt in every other department of the Church. In view of this fact we urge our pastors to do all that within them lies to make possible the purpose of the General Board a League chapter in every congregation.

We recommend the Epworth Era as one of the best of young people's papers and ask the pastors to appoint Era agents in every church whether there be a League or not.

The missionary spirit of our Holston Leaguers is very gratifying. They are paying $75.00 for three $25.00 scholarships in Hiwassee College, and $50.00 for a scholarship in our Kobe College, Kobe, Japan. The salary of the Italian missionary has been paid in part by the League. It can and should be paid in full by them. The League will be better by doing it, and the Mission Board should be relieved.

We urge the observance of League Day—the first Sunday in May. Where there are Leagues one public service should be turned over to the League; where there are no Leagues the pastor should present the League work in a sermon or address, and in either case, a collection should be taken up and forwarded to the League Treasurer, J. Harry Swan, Jr., Bristol, Tenn. We reiterate our opinion of past years that if our Conference is to hold its place it must speedily provide ways and means for an Assembly for the training of competent leaders among the Leaguers of our Conference.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

The business of our Publishing House continues to increase in volume. During the month of September, 1910, the business of the house was $19,000 in excess of the same month in 1909.

Our Sunday-school literature maintains its high standard of merit and adaptation and has encouragingly increased in circulation so as now to be a great source of revenue.

The Review still maintains its high standard of excellence and editorial scholarship.

The Christian Advocate and Era, notwithstanding the difficulties of a contested field, have, by their merits and excellence, commanded the respect of their readers and increased in circulation. By their merits and the cause they represent they commend themselves to the people throughout the connection.

The Midland Methodist, our Conference organ, continues its standard of excellence, and is meeting the demands of our people as a source of Church information. The Editor and Publisher are striving to give the Church the best. Notwithstanding the advance in the price of the paper the circulation has not fallen off.

We heartily endorse the consolidation of the Missionary Advocate, Our Homes and Go Forward, thus making a strong missionary magazine.

We urge our pastors to put forth every effort for the dissemination of our Sunday-school literature, the Midland Methodist, The Christian Advocate, and all our Church periodicals, to incite an appreciation for our own literature, a taste for good books and a desire for fuller information of our Church work.

We recommend the re-appointment of Rev. T. C. Schuler as Editor and J. W. Perry, Eugene Blake and Creed F. Bates as Publishing Committee for the Midland Methodist.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

Each year brings us additional proofs of the wisdom displayed in the organization of the Board of Church Extension. The work of this Board makes possible many church enterprises which would otherwise be impossible, and gives aid in many other cases. We are much gratified with the largely increased receipts for this important work. The past year has been a year of great activity in church building within the bounds of our Conference. A number of excellent church buildings have been completed, and many others are in course of erection. We are glad to announce an increase of more than $500.00 in receipts on assessments for Church Extension, besides a special of $300.00 for the Colored Methodist Church. Notwithstanding the increase in funds we are by no means able to render the assistance asked of us, for the demands upon us are extraordinary. Twenty-seven applications were before us. A number of these were from churches that formerly received substantial aid from this Board; others were from churches that had not, in our judgment, been pushed to the point that justified our extending aid at this time. We have made appropriations as follows:

cuit, Knoxville District. This amount, together with any other amount collected on this Fund, is to be loaned to the Etowah Church.

The General Board has placed an assessment of $8,450.00 upon our Conference, which is an increase of $1,610.00 over the past year. This amount is to be applied to parsonage building. We have apportioned the assessment as follows:

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The past year has been one of marked success with all our leading Conference schools. Owing to the conditions arising, for the most part, from the increased attention which the State has given to the public school, some of our secondary institutions have not prospered.

In addition to a most successful completion of last year's work and a very gratifying beginning of a new term, Martha Washington College has received subscriptions to the amount of $25,000. This work has been accomplished by the agent of the college, Rev. J. B. Ward, ably assisted by the President, Rev. S. D. Long, D. D. When this subscription is paid the college will receive a gift of $12,500 from Mr. Andrew Carnegie.

Sullins College, under the leadership of her new President, Rev. W. S. Neighbors, D. D., has had a splendid opening and has before her a most promising future. Adding to the public favor which this institution enjoys throughout the Southern States the large local patronage which it receives, and the fact of the present able management, it can be readily seen that this will continue to be a flourishing school.

Centenary College has been thoroughly reorganized and large plans laid for the future welfare of this popular institution. The new President, Dr. C. W. Crooke has spared no pains in making this one of the most desirable institutions in the South.

We commend in the highest terms the excellent work of Hiwassee College and bespeak the hearty cooperation of our pastors and people with Rev. Eugene Blake in his plans for enlarging the accommodations of the school. This school holds a unique place in the educational system of the Conference. May it prosper.

Emory and Henry College completed one of the most gratifying year's work of its history. This was a fitting close to the wise and efficient management of our own Dr. R. G. Waterhouse, now Bishop. We believe the college is very fortunate in securing as President, Dr. C. C. Weaver, who brings to the work not only a thorough scholarship, but also experience, fitness and adaptability for the management of the affairs of the college. Never in the history of Emory and Henry has the outlook been more promising.

In view of the increasing demands for the enlargement and endowment of Emory and Henry College the Board resolved:

1. That the Board of Trustees of Emory and Henry College be asked to create the office of Vice-President, who shall give his time to the organization of all the forces of the Church in behalf of the college; to the completion of the fund needed to secure Mr. Carnegie's pledge; and to inaugurate and carry forward a definite movement for an endowment of at least $100,000.

2. That we believe it would be well for the Trustees of Emory and Henry College through their Executive Committee to secure Rev. J. O. Straley to fill the said office at an early date.

Your Board believes that the sale of the Pikeville Training School to the county for the sum of $5,000 is the most feasible plan to pursue with respect to that institution.

Your Board adopted the following paper regarding the Board of Trustees of our Conference Schools:

- "1. That in carrying out the provisions of the General Conference of 1910 with reference to the selection of Trustees for our Church schools and colleges, said trustees be nominated by the present Boards of Trustees of such schools and colleges, and confirmed by the Conference Board of Education, such nomination and confirmation being necessary to an election. In case the Board of Education refuses to confirm a nomination, the Board of Trustees shall nominate another. In case the Board of Trustees fails to nominate, or the Board of Education fails or refuses to confirm by the time of the ensuing Annual Conference, a vacancy exists; which vacancy shall be filled by the Bishop having in charge the Holston Conference at that time

"2. That the members of the Boards of Trustees of our Conference schools and colleges, be elected for a term of six years, subject to reelection indefinitely; one-third, or as near that number as possible, to be elected every two years. The Boards of Trustees existing when these provisions go into effect shall divide their number into three parts as nearly equal as possible, to serve two, four and six years respectively from the date of their confirmation as above provided.

"3. That the Board of Education proceed at once in cooperation with the Boards of Trustees to secure such changes in the deeds and charters of our schools and colleges as are necessary in order to conform them to the foregoing provisions.

"That competent attorneys be employed to secure copies of all deeds to church school properties in the bounds of the Holston Conference, and to report to the Conference Board of Education what is necessary, if anything, to be done to make the titles perfect in the church.

"4. We believe that the Conference Board of Education should be composed of ten pastors, five school men, and five laymen, exclusive of school men, to serve for four years." We recommend the adoption of the paper.

We recommend that the subscription to the Educational Endowment Fund be paid at once, if convenient, instead of installments as provided by the terms of subscription.

We recommend the reappointment of Rev. J. B. Ward as financial agent of Martha Washington College.

We endorse the appropriation of the General Board for Hiwassee College.

The matter of Russell College, at Lebanon, Va., is referred to the incoming Board.

Mr. Phil Morelock is recommended as a suitable person to receive a loan from the Williams Relief Fund.

The Board requests the appointment of Rev. Frank M. Reynolds as Principal of the Tazewell High School, located at Tazewell, Tenn.; and the appointment of Rev. J. H. Summitt as principal of the Jonesville Institute, located at Jonesville, Va.

M

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The report of the General Board of Missions indicates that the success attending our work in foreign lands is the occasion of its greatest embarrassment, because of lack of funds to enter the opening doors and care for the enterprises in hand. The rapidly increasing cost of living in every land adds to the difficulty.

We hail with gratification the union of our missionary forces, and trust that it is a beginning of a great Church movement for reaching all the world with the Gospel.

The "Every Member Campaign" being emphasized by the Board of Missions and the Laymen's Movement should find ready endorsement and help from every pastor in Holston, where many years ago such a plan was in use among our Leagues and was the most effective agency in bringing into note the "Holston Plan." We fear our Churches have not profited lately as they should from this example of the Epworth Leagues.

Every pastor should enter into correspondence with the Educational Department of the Board of Missions for helpful plans and suggestions as to the work that can be done in Sunday-schools and Epworth Leagues.

We would urge again the importance of circulating missionary literature. Now is a most favorable time to secure subscribers for Go Forward. We trust that the new magazine to be started January 1st, will begin with a very large list of subscribers. It should have the right of way to every home.

The equipment and furnishing of the Home Department comes at an opportune moment, when a number of Conferences and some cities need the co-operation of the whole Church for entering the doors of opportunity, so many and so large.

Your Board finds itself confronted by many new duties each year. We appreciate the cordial support which we have always received from the Conference. But the men on many of our fields are receiving far too meager support. Their patience and fortitude is evidence sufficient that the heroes are not all gone, nor the heroic age passed. But we should like to see some of this heroism shared by the multitudes in our Church members who are taking their fill of self-indulgent luxury. The salaries of our preachers in Holston have, by no means, kept pace with our material advancement nor with the increasing demands of the age.

We respectfully request the Presiding Elders, in fixing dates for their District Conferences this year, if possible, to arrange them so that they may be held two each week, so that all may fall within five consecutive weeks, and that one session be given to the laymen. Dr. C. F. Reid has promised, in that case, that some representative from the Board of Missions shall visit all the District Conferences.

The report of the President of Hiwassee College shows that real progress has been made in the development of that school. The tuition receipts for the last year were more than $1,300. This school puts the cost of education within the reach of the poorest, and has been the means of starting many on the road to success in life. It well deserves the support we give it, and is worthy of all commendation.

The work of our missionary among the Italians has demonstrated the need for such work. While there have been no society organized, many have had a friend with whom to take council, an opportunity to hear the Gospel preached and have proved their interest in many ways. It is very evident to us that this work is more and more appreciated and should be maintained. The mission needs your approval and sympathy. We ask your hearty co-operation in this enterprise.

We are at the parting of the ways, where we must advance yet more or fail to enter territory open to us and needing us, and perhaps fail to hold the ground in many places already gained. We know no retreat. Methodism has never been wont to retire in the face of difficulties. During this coming year there should be held a Missionary Institute not only in every district, but also in every city or pastoral charge. If our Presiding Elders will agree to lead us in such a campaign, we will instruct our Secretary to furnish every possible aid; these could be used not only to inform the people on the subject, inspire them to effort, but also as an agency in organizing and setting in motion the Laymen's Movement.

We urge upon the attention of the Presiding Elders the Mid-Winter Institute and Leaders' Conference at the Training School at Nashville. They are planned especially to aid Presiding Elders in their work, and they are attending in large numbers each year. The laymen could not make a better investment of money than to send their Presiding Elder to this Institute and Conference.

We submit for your approval the following By-laws to govern the Board in the future:

BY-LAWS

1. The officers of the Conference Board of Missions shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Assistant Secretary and Treasurer, to be elected by ballot quadrennially, who shall perform the duties usually attaching to these offices.

2. The officers of the Board shall constitute the Executive Committee, which shall be charged with the duty of enforcing all rules and regulations of the Board, and of acting for the Board in all matters of administration in the interim of the Board meetings. They shall make a full report of their acts to the Board for its approval.

3. A committee on estimates shall be elected by the Board, to whom shall be referred all requests for aid. They shall make a careful estimate of the amounts to be appropriated, of the sum needed by the Board for its work, and of the apportionments to be made of the same together with the assessments of the General Board of Missions to the several Districts of the Conference, and report to the Board for final action; provided that, the Board may, at its pleasure, consider the estimates in committee of the whole.

4. An Auditing Committee of three members of the Board, appointed annually by the President, shall examine the books and accounts of the Treasurer and report during the Annual Meeting.

5. The Board shall hold its Annual Meeting during the session of the Annual Conference, at which all appropriations for aid to pastoral charges shall be made. These appropriations shall not in any year exceed ninety per cent. of the income for the year ended, until the reserve shall reach $8,000, after which the appropriations shall not exceed ninety-five per cent.

A Mid-year Meeting with the Presiding Elders shall be held annually in the month of February, the time and place to be fixed by the Executive Committee, who shall, in co-operation with a Presiding Elder appointed by the Presiding Elders, prepare a program for the meeting. The purpose of this meeting shall be to make any necessary re-adjustments in the appropriations, provided the amount appropriated at the Annual Meeting is not exceeded; to discuss work, and advise ways and means for making it effective. All new enterprises to be projected and new missions to be established, should be presented for consideration at this meeting.

6. The policy of the Board shall be to reduce appropriations to the different missions each year when at all practicable. The Board will continue the policy of making appropriations conditioned on the amount paid for pastor's salary by the charge receiving aid.

7. The Board will not grant appropriations when it is evident, after careful investigation, that an adjustment of the work could be made so as to avoid the necessity for an appropriation.

8. The Board will decline to make appropriations in the absence of satisfactory information, and in order to obtain this information, will insist that the blanks furnished by the Board be filled and returned by the Presiding Elder for new missions, and by the Quarterly Conference and Presiding Elder for charges to be continued as missions.

9. Any District, Church, Sunday-school, Epworth League or person, may assume, in whole or in part, the support of a missionary or mission, established by the Conference Board. Their contributions shall be applied to the support of such objects, provided the funds be sent to the Treasurer of the Board.

10. The Secretary of the Board shall issue drafts for the salaries of the missionaries in its employ, quarterly, payable January 15th, April 15th, July 15th, and on the first day of the session of the Annual Conference; provided, that no draft shall be issued to pay the salary of a missionary until he has sent a report of his work for the quarter, to the Secretary, which report is to be made on blanks furnished by the Board.

11. The Treasurer of the Board will pay out funds for Conference Missions only on drafts signed by the Secretary, and endorsed by the payee, except for his expenses as Treasurer.

12. Whenever one pastor shall be appointed to serve two charges to which appropriations have been made, the Secretary shall issue to him drafts for the amount appropriated to the charge receiving the larger sum only. Whenever a pastor appointed to a mission charge has already received aid from one of the Conference Boards, the Secretary shall issue no drafts except for such amount as the appropriation to the Mission may exceed the amount he has already received.

13. The Board shall appropriate out of its funds to pay the expenses of the Mid-year Meeting of the Executive Committee and of the officers of the Board in the discharge of their duties as officers.

The apportionment made to our Conference for Foreign Missions is $15,-714.00, and for Home Missions $15,690.00, which, when added to what we urgently need for Conference Missions equals the amount asked for the foreign work. After as careful consideration as we could give the matter, we have apportioned these sums to the several districts, as follows:

COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE EVANGELISM.

During the last quadrennium a notable revival movement has been in progress in our Conference. The movement reached high-water mark the last two years, during which time one church was blessed with eleven hundred professions. One city is rejoicing in more than a thousand souls saved, and districts report from two thousand to twenty-five hundred conversions. This is of God and shows that great as our material prosperity is, the progress of the Church keeps pace with it. Nor is this great outpouring of the Spirit confined to our Conference. Reports of glorious revivals come from every quarter of the Church.

In view of this forward movement and the Church-wide Campaign projected by the General Conference under the leadership of the Bishops, and in order to supplement the work already in progress we propose a to be conducted according to the following plan:

1. Our motto: "A revival in every church, and in every charge throughout the bounds of the Conference."

2. The campaign shall be under the direction of a committee of five, three of whom shall be the evangelistic secretary, the Conference missionary secretary, and the Conference Lay Leader, the other two to be appointed by and from the Board of Missions. The meetings of the committee shall be held at the close of each Annual Conference, at the Mid-year Meeting, and at any other time when a meeting is necessary.

3. A secretary shall be elected by the Annual Conference on nomination of the Board of Missions, whose duty it shall be to conduct the correspondence of the campaign, aid in arranging revival services, prepare and distribute literature, and whatever else will advance the interest of the campaign, giving especial attention to a concert of prayer.

4. The expense incurred by the secretary shall be defrayed by a fund which he is empowered to raise. He shall make the Board of Missions a report of his expenses.

5. A special time shall be given during the session of the Conference to the consideration of the campaign, at which time the name of each pastor, who is willing to aid, without remuneration, except his expenses, in the evangelistic work, shall be secured and listed by the evangelistic secretary.

6. The campaign in each district shall be under the direction of a committee of three, composed as follows: The Presiding Elder of the District, one pastor and one layman, appointed by the central committee of five. The duty of this committee shall be to arrange, in connection with the evangelistic secretary and the central committee, a co-operative campaign in which a series of meetings shall be projected in every church of every charge using the pastors who signify their willingness to do evangelistic work.

MEMOIRS

JOHN BORING

Rev. John Boring was born near Jonesboro, Tenn., on August 7, 1827; was converted at Bond's Camp Ground, in Sullivan County, Tennessee, on August 8, 1849; was licensed to preach and joined the Holston Conference in 1851; was married to Miss Laura A. Schoolfield, of Bledsoe County, Tenn., in 1854; and died at the home of his grandson, Rev. E. Marvin Ball, at Emory, Va., at 10 a. m., on August 5, 1910.

Funeral services were held at Emory, Va., conducted by Bishop R. G. Waterhouse, and at Trinity Church, Chattanooga, Tenn., conducted by the pastor, Rev. Thomas Priddy, assisted by the writer and others. The interment was in Forest Hill Cemetery, by the side of his wife, who preceded him to the better land several years. There he sweetly sleeps on the bosom of hope, Lookout Mountain keeping watch over him as a faithful sentinel until the resurrection trumpet shall awaken him to life.

Brother Boring's life was a long and eventful one. He was always a preacher of the Gospel, and nothing else. His call to the ministry was vivid and abiding. His early years were spent on circuits and the strength of his manhood on districts as presiding elder. In these spheres his success was eminent, especially in evangelistic work. Wherever he went revival fires were kindled and burned brightly. Later in life he spent several years in special evangelistic work, and was very successful. Here, as elsewhere, his preaching and his methods were orthodox according to the Methodist standard. With him conversion was a great work, wrought by the Holy Spirit on the human soul, renovating, sanctifying, and radically changing the currents of the inner and outer life. His converts did not need to be lassoed and tied to a stake to keep them from wandering off and getting lost in the great crowd of unsaved men; but they sought the fellowship of the Church and enjoyed her communion, as does every genuine child of God.

Some ten or more years ago he had a very severe spell of lagrippe, which left him with impaired health and a troublesome cough, which ultimately resulted in his death. After this he was not able to do the full work of a minister, and spent the remainder of his years as superintendent of the public Charities at Chattanooga. This work was altogether congenial, and opened up a wide field for usefulness. Eternity alone will reveal the amount of good he did to the suffering poor, and with it the comforting and inspiring blessings of the Gospel of peace. Dr. John Bachman, of the First Presbyterian Church of Chattanooga, was associated with him in this work, and at his funeral made a talk, bearing testimony to the excellence of Brother Boring's character and work, and touchingly alluding to his attachment to him and his sense of personal loss in his death.

My acquaintance with Brother Boring began at Cleveland, Tenn., when our Conference met there in 1854, at which I joined the traveling connection. He and I were both assigned for entertainment to the home of his Uncle Ruble, who lived there. Before the week ended the acquaintance ripened into a friendship which lasted nearly fifty-six years, without a jar of suspicion and with increasing attachment, and which will soon be renewed over the Jordan.

Brother Boring's educational advantages and opportunities in his boyhood were meager, and he did not receive much benefit from the school; but he was a genuine child of nature, and, with God's great book open before him, he was not without opportunity for self-culture. He was a diligent student, imbibing rapidly and retaining tenaciously. He read human character by intuition. He was a constant and devout student of the Bible. I don't think I ever knew any one who had more of it stored away in the memory, or who could use it with greater facility or profit in preaching. No better school has ever been organized than the Methodist itinerancy, if the student is industrious and in hearty sympathy with the spirit of his work.

Brother Boring was the most original character I have ever known. In his modes of thought and expression and action he did not follow any model, except that of his Lord in morals and religion.

In social life he recognized the obligation to observe the necessary rules of polite society, and was a gentleman; but he declined to conform to the arbitrary exactions of the fastidious and critical when they were contrary to his sense of propriety. His social qualities were very fine. He was bright and optimistic and full of the milk of human kindness. When I lived at St. Elmo, he often spent some time with us in our home. He was always a welcome guest. His visits were enjoyable and profitable. His conversation and his prayers were seasoned with grace.

As a preacher his originality was always manifest. He did not think or speak like any one else. Not two of his sermons were alike in form. They grew naturally out of his texts, and were often lucidly exegetical; but they did not follow any beaten track. If he discussed a trite theme, he clothed it in a new dress. He was constantly blazing out new tracks in the wilderness of thought. He illustrated freely, and his illustrations were pertinent and striking; but they were unique. He was a great preacher. The unction of the Holy Spirit seemed always upon him in the pulpit. Sometimes the divine influence was so powerful that his countenance was aglow with an unearthly radiance. Then his audience was completely under the spell of the divine afflatus. He preached much out of his own experience. He often gave a graphic account of his conversion in the straw at Bond's Camp Ground; and I have no doubt that many scores of people were induced to seek salvation by the relation of that experience. In his palmy days out on circuits and districts the people gathered to hear him in great multitudes, and large numbers were converted under his preaching.

I am sure that I never knew a better man. His religious convictions were vivid and profound. His conversion and call to the ministry were absolute verities, which he never seemed to doubt. He had a quick conscience and an acute sense of obligations, and was as true as steel. His simple and child-like, but profound, religious faith held him steady amid all the shifting and perverse conditions of life. He lived the higher life, but it never exalted him in his own estimation nor debased his less fortunate fellow Christians.

When I went to Emory at the last commencement I learned that Brother Boring was at the home of his grandson and was very sick. I went to see him at once. I found him at the crossing of the Jordan. His body had wasted away, and was evidently ready to fall into the grave. In many things his mind and memory had failed, but his religious convictions and faith were as strong and his hope of eternal life as bright as ever. He was consciously nearing the end, and with perfect confidence. He had as little fear of death as you have of the bed on which you nightly fall asleep. In a little while he went over to the home of his hopes and his love.

"Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?" But he has gone to join the blood-bought multitude about which he used to talk so eloquently. Thither, by God's grace, let us follow him. To some of us the night is imminent, but, thank God, the morning will soon break with ineffable splendor and transcendent glory.

F. RICHARDSON.

MILTON J. BUTCHER

If your committee is correctly informed, Milton Jasper Butcher first beheld the light of this world in a humble home in Lee County, Va., June 21, 1873, and at his own home in Hawkins County, Tenn., he opened them again on August 22, 1910, to feast them forever on the glory of that city whose light is God.

Brother Butcher's life was one of unremitting struggle. His father was a poor man with a large family to maintain. As a boy he recognized the gravity of the situation and fought bravely to keep the wolf from his father's door till he had almost reached maturity. As a matter of course his education was greatly neglected till he approximated manhood.

That which revolutionized his entire life and changed the whole current of his being, social, intellectual, and spiritual, occurred in the month of February, 1887. At a meeting held by Rev. E. H. Cassidy at New Salem Church in Claiborne County, Tenn., he was happily and wholly converted to God. His conversion, like magic, transformed him from a timid, bashful, retiring, country lad into a veritable Christian hero. He had that "perfect love which casteth out all fear" and was ready in the great congregation or in private and personal work to witness for his divine Lord. In the presence of the young and old, the learned and the unlearned alike, he was equally valiant and fearless. He had but one great animating purpose which amounted to a passion, to do his Master's will and hasten the oncoming of his kingdom. This passion suffered no decadence, but grew stronger and more dominating till called from labor to rest.

The vision he got of his Lord when converted awakened all his dormant intellectual powers, and he was possessed of an all-consuming desire to obtain an education. Nothing was too menial or too hard for him to do if it only contributed to that end. By the direction and financial help of his pastor, Brother Cassidy, in 1889 he matriculated at Hiwassee College, where he remained an earnest and diligent student for three years. Professor Huddleston, then connected with that institution, declared that he made greater progress for the time he was in school than any person he had ever had under his care. His means being exhausted, he taught school as a means of replenishing his purse and again entered St. Clair Academy, then under the principalship of Rev. J. M. Carter. At the close of that school year, for the same reason as before, he again taught school and entered at the spring term Emory and Henry College in 1895 and remained only one year. This closed his school life, but not his life as a student.

At the fourth quarterly meeting for the St. Clair Circuit, held September 1, 1894, the last Quarterly Conference which could grant license to preach, along with S. V. Morell and B. W. Lee, he was granted license to preach, Dr. C. T. Carroll being presiding elder and Rev. E. H. Cassidy being preacher in charge. He was received on trial into the traveling connection of the Holston Conference, M. E. Church, South, at Cleveland, Tenn., October, 1896, and served the following charges: Sneedville Mission, Fall Branch Circuit, and Tazewell Circuit, each one year. The next two years he was appointed to the East Stone Gap Circuit. During the first year of his pastorate at East Stone Gap Circuit Rev. J. L. Weber, pastor of Big Stone Gap Station, was elected President of Kentucky Wesleyan College, and Brother Butcher filled out the year with great acceptability. He then served Pennington Gap and Whitwell Circuits, each one year. He was then pastor of Surgoinsville Circuit and Greeneville Station, each three years. Greeneville was his last charge.

He was both popular and successful in all his charges which he served. While on the Surgoinsville Circuit he built, very largely with his own hands, a number of commodious and tasteful churches, which not only stand as monuments to his memory, but perpetuate the work which he so much loved and to which he consecrated his redeemed life. Through them "he being dead yet speaketh."

During his pastorate on the Sneedville Mission he was happily married to Miss Lula Dawn Charles, daughter of Mr. W. L. Charles, of Hawkins County, Tenn., on March 25, 1897. This union was purely a love affair. Nothing but an all-absorbing and overmastering love could induce a timid, retiring girl, brought up in a cultured, Christian home, accustomed to all of the comforts of life, and who, being a Methodist, knew all of the fortunes and misfortunes of a Methodist preacher's life, to unite her destiny with the pastor of Sneedville Mission with no appropriation from the Missionary Board. Love alone could transform this almost morbidly modest young woman into a Christian heroine. But the risk was not all hers. How he trembled lest he should impose on the object of his love unbearable burdens! After many struggles of the situation and fought bravely to keep the wolf from his father's door till he had almost reached maturity. As a matter of course his education was greatly neglected till he approximated manhood.

That which revolutionized his entire life and changed the whole current of his being, social, intellectual, and spiritual, occurred in the month of February, 1887. At a meeting held by Rev. E. H. Cassidy at New Salem Church in Claiborne County, Tenn., he was happily and wholly converted to God. His conversion, like magic, transformed him from a timid, bashful, retiring, country lad into a veritable Christian hero. He had that "perfect love which casteth out all fear" and was ready in the great congregation or in private and personal work to witness for his divine Lord. In the presence of the young and old, the learned and the unlearned alike, he was equally valiant and fearless. He had but one great animating purpose which amounted to a passion, to do his Master's will and hasten the oncoming of his kingdom. he was convinced that she was the one woman whom the Lord intended to be his "helpmeet" in life, and so, contrary to the advice of his best and wisest friends, he shut his eyes, cast the burden on the Lord, and they were married. In health she stood faithfully and loyally by his side, and, as no one who has had the good fortune to be their guest can doubt, she made for him a wholesome, clean Christian home. She was a "keeper at home." In sickness and death she stood a tower of strength at his side, tender, faithful, unflinching. Their union was soul union and essentially eternal.

Brother Butcher was a man of strong, clear, incisive intellect, and, as this paper indicates, of good education and broad culture. As a preacher, he was strong and practical rather than ornate. As a pastor he was faithful and painstaking. He tended, visited, and fed his flock with purpose. He did not hesitate to discharge that most distasteful and difficult of all duties of a pastor, to tell men and women their faults to their faces. In theology he was thoroughly sound and evangelical. In dealing with Church people he had few, if any, equals. It was a real pleasure to hold his Quarterly Conferences. He answered all questions asked in the Discipline promptly and accurately and any others which might arise. He guessed at nothing. His fidelity to his friends was limited only by principle. He made a brave and manly fight for his life, running through months, if not years, yet always in perfect submission to the will of the Heavenly Father, being always cheerful and often humorous. The end came gradually, giving time for many last messages. He had no doubts, no fears. He spoke of death as one going on a pleasant journey. He called his friends about him, bade them farewell, and asked them to meet him in the better country. He said the Master was holding forth a crown of life toward him. He sent his love to the Conference and committed his widow to its care. Then without a struggle he fell asleep, to wake at the blast of the archangel's trump. He sleeps near his home in Hawkins County, Tenn., and sleeps well. "Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his."

GEORGE D. FRENCH.

ROBERT E. SMITH

Robert E. Smith was born near Blountville, Tenn., February 23, 1846, and died in Chattanooga, Tenn., March 30, 1910. He was peculiarly blessed with a pious father and a consecrated mother, who led him gently but certainly in the better way. He oftentimes said he owed to his mother a debt of gratitude he could never pay. He became religious early in life—in his fourteenth year. In October, 1870, he joined the Holston Conference of the M. E. Church, South, at Wytheville, Va., and for well-nigh forty years was a faithful, earnest, and efficient preacher of the Gospel. He was happily married to Miss Bagely, of Lee County, Va., June 27, 1876. She made him a most helpful companion. Three children were born to them, one of whom—a girl—died in infancy. The two boys are now young men, and accept gladly the care of their widowed mother. The last charge served by Brother Smith was Trenton, Ga., where his health failed over two years ago. He was loath to give up his work, and entertained the hope almost to the end, that he might again preach the Gospel that he loved so dearly. He was a man of unquestioned character, and as a pastor was always acceptable to his people. They enjoyed his preaching, and his presence in their homes was a benediction. His wife said to me: "He was a pure man in all his life; he never used a vulgar or smutty word, and could not endure it." O what a witness this is to a pure and spotless life! He was systematic and prompt in all his work. His presiding elder never had to wait for his reports, nor chide him for tardiness in making them. He loved his Church and Conference more than life itself. He would never remain away from the annual meeting unless providentially hindered. He felt that he must answer the roll call even though he had to borrow money—as he sometimes did—to go on. Among the many visitors to his home and his bedside, none were more appreciated than the preachers. He would diligently inquire after special efforts to reach and save men, and would rejoice over their success. Sometimes he would rehearse to them plans of sermons he was making, showing the trend of his heart and thought. His faith in God and his resignation to his will were beautiful indeed. He never spoke of dying; it was always "going away." He comforted his wife with the assurance that he would abide near her, and that he would never forget her. His hearty amens to our prayers still linger in our ears, and his broken yet joyful singing we shall never forget. At worship he would sing "Never Alone" and "What a meeting that will be when we all get home!" He has gone home and left the writer of this alone of the seven who originally joined the Conference. We shall see him again in the land where they meet to part no more.

To Any Minister

For months we have been telling the ministers of the United States—yes, of the entire world—through columns of the various religious publications of the entire country, about the new Fox Visible Typewriter, and of our special offer to ministers. Replies from these advertisements have been received from every corner of this country—and from a large number of foreign countries—and hundreds upon hundreds of ministers have taken advantage of our Mr. W. R. Fox's most unusual—and exceedingly liberal—proposition, and have become the possessors of the new Fox Visible Typewriters.

If there is one typewriter more than another that a minister should not buy, it is one of the cheap "rebuilt to sell" typewriters that are being advertised at from $15 to $50. Beware of the "Syndicates" and "Sales Co.'s"—they do not manufacture but deal in second hand and rebuilt typewriters—old models that the manufacturers cannot sell. There is only one typewriter that should be considered by any minister, and that is THE BEST. Your work entitles you to this, and, furthermore, the best is always the cheapest in the end.

Will You Let Mr. Fox Help You Buy a Typewriter?

As a minister, and a business man, we appeal to you not to purchase any typewriter, at any price, nor from anyone, no matter how flattering the proposition may seem to you, until you have given us an opportunity to send you for inspection and trial a new Fox Visible Typewriter. This we will do at our own expense—will not even ask you to pay the express charges—and you will not be under the slightest obligation to purchase our typewriter after trial unless you wish to do so.

After trial if you wish to purchase our typewriter—on Mr. Fox's special proposition—you can pay us a little down and the balance at the rate of 20 cents a day—no payments to be made on Sundays or Holidays.

WILL YOU DO THIS? We feel that this is "your chance of a lifetime"—it may be your one and only chance. Will you let us help you to come to such a wise decision that there will be no after regret—no financial loss on your part? If so, fill out the following coupon and mail it to us today—do it now before you forget it. Address our Mr. W. R. Fox personally.

FOR TEN DAYS FREE!

W. R. FOX, Pres. Fox Typewriter Co., :: Front Sreet, Grand Rapids, Mich.

DEAR SIR:—Please send me a copy of your catalog and write me your special offer to ministers on the new Fox Visible Typewriter. It is distinctly understood that the signing of this coupon does not in any way obligate me to purchase, and that no typewriter is to be sent me unless I decide later to order one for free trial.
